

Opinions Divided In Sunday Movie Poll in Tullytown

TULLYTOWN, Sept. 26—The pros and cons of Sunday movies in Tullytown were aired today in a survey made by the COURIER. The survey was a result of the announcement of a referendum on this subject. The referendum will be held in the November general elections.

Objections to the proposal were based on the feeling that Sunday is the Sabbath and that there are six other days in the week for this form of entertainment.

Among those against movies opening on Sunday was Mrs. Ferdinand Bachofer, "I do not approve of movies on Sundays," she said. "There are six other days for things like that, but Sunday should be kept as the Sabbath."

Agrees With Neighbors
Mrs. Russell Pirth agrees with her neighbor.

"Both my husband and I are against the proposal," she said. "It's no place for children to be on Sunday."

The Rev. Samuel Gaskell believes the proposal itself is a bad trend of modern times.

"I am very much against it," he said. "There are other days that movies are open, but Sunday the churches are open, and it is the Lord's day. Six days a week are ample enough to see movies."

Taking the opposite stand were people who feel no harm will be done, that it will be good for the teen-agers, and that adults will enjoy it, too.

Sees No Harm In It
"I'm for it," said Mrs. Edward Bergmann, "and so are the majority of people. I can't see where any harm will be done at all."

Mrs. John Sili thinks adults will benefit, too.

"I think it's a wonderful idea to have movies on Sundays," she said. "I'm in favor of it."

Mr. William Conca was one of the 150 voters who signed the petition to place the issue on the ballot.

"I don't like the movies myself," he asserted, "but a lot of people do, and that's one good reason."

Several In Doubt
Several persons interviewed were undecided and they believe whatever the people vote will be all right.

Said one woman, "I think people could do worse things than go to the movies on Sundays, but I try to avoid it myself. I still regard Sunday as the Sabbath, but I would never condemn anyone who wanted to go to the movies anyway."

Although there is no movie house in Tullytown, negotiations are under way to open one in the shopping district of Levittown.

Walkout Ends, Work Resumes At Twp. School

Employees Return To Posts With No Explanation

BENSALEM TWP., Sept. 25 — The "illegal walkout" by plumbers over a jurisdictional dispute with carpenters at the Bensalem Junior High School came to an end yesterday morning when both plumbers and carpenters resumed work at the regular starting time. No explanation was available as to the reason for the change in decision.

A conference was held Tuesday at the site of the school by members of the Bensalem Township Authority, the School board, architects, plumbers union and the building trades council to iron out difficulties between the plumbers and the union.

No Meeting
The illegality of the strike was based on the fact that in the event of a jurisdictional dispute workers may not leave work to strike until a conciliation board has met and the dispute brought to focus. This phase of arbitration is part of the existing Taft-Hartley Act. The walkout, claimed members of the school board, was illegal.

At the conference, James O'Neal, business manager of the Plumbers Union 690, A.F.L., flatly refused to put the plumbers back on the job. He declared, "We are going to get our piece of pie before we put the plumbers back on the job."

Plumbers Wrong
Raymond Laven, president of the Building Trades Council of the Philadelphia area, stating that "the plumbers were wrong in walking off the job as they did."

Robert Shafer, superintendent of Bensalem township schools, asked the conference: "Why teach democracy law and order to high school students, when they have such a flagrant violation of the law under their noses?"

Neither Laven nor O'Neal were available for comment after the men returned to their jobs.

All Aboard For Air Show

R. T. VERNON, social studies teacher, Delbas High School, takes roll of some of the 150 children who left from the Greenwood Dairy this morning, to attend the National Kids Day celebration at McGuire Air Force Base, Fort Dix, N. J. The trip is being sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Bucks County Lincoln Highway.

Drives Wrong Side Right Into Jail

TULLYTOWN, Sept. 26—If you want to stay out of trouble, stay on the right side of the road.

That is a motto Louis Triado, 20, Kings Farms, Morrisville, has plenty of time to ponder in the Bucks County Prison today and for the next 19 days.

Triado was spotted by Officer Pat Cola, Tullytown Borough Police, because he was driving down the wrong side of the road. When Cola stopped Triado, he discovered that he had no driver's license and he had "borrowed" a license plate.

Cola and Chief John Walterick took Triado before Judge J. P. Melvin, where it was discovered that he could not raise the money for the fine.

As a result, Triado is spending 20 days in Bucks County Prison.

Flames Sweep Barn, Level It To Ground

LOWER MAKEFIELD TWP., Sept. 26—A flash fire of unknown origin destroyed the hay-filled barn of Walter Leedom, Dolington and Yardley roads, early this morning. The blaze marked the second barn fire within a 24-hour period in this area.

Flames were discovered by the Leedom family at 1 a. m. The family said that the flames were curling up the west wall of the barn rapidly. Before the firemen could reach the scene, the blaze had all but demolished the barn.

Chief John Zialek, of the Yardley Fire Department, directed firemen from three other communities in keeping the fire from spreading to other buildings of the property.

The rapid burning fire destroyed four heifers, 4000 balls of straw, a wagon load of corn, a ball elevator and 1000 bushels of oats. A shed at one end of the barn was saved.

Twelve pieces of apparatus from four communities were called to control the flames. In addition to Yardley Fire Company, two companies from Morrisville, one company each from Newtown and Falls Township. The Fallsington Fire Company was called in, but stood by in reserve.

Assistant Fire Chief Arthur Worrell said the blaze was the second in two nights within a distance of two miles of each other.

"There is no indication of arson," said Worrell, "but we are making an investigation to determine the cause of the fire which we have listed presently as 'unknown.'"

The first barn fire was on the farm of Mrs. Frank Russell, Wrightstown and Creamery roads, yesterday morning. The cause of the fire was attributed to spontaneous combustion.

Arthritis Center Reopens

Bristol Rheumatism Center Is Reopened

The Arthritis and Rheumatism Center at Bristol General Hospital reported yesterday, after being closed for almost six weeks.

Dr. Lewis Udell, of the University of Pennsylvania Hospital, was on hand to resume care of the clinic. Dr. Philip R. Trommer, secretary of the Eastern Pennsylvania Chapter of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, who is called in on consultation, was not present.

200 Cases Handled
Bristol General Hospital was chosen by the foundation to serve as the arthritis and rheumatism center for Lower Bucks County on May 8. The foundation opened the local center to relieve the pressure on Philadelphia hospitals. Since the center was opened, it has handled about 200 patients. The center serves in a diagnostic capacity, according to Dr. Roger Harmon, administrator of the hospital. Dr. Udell and Dr. Trommer refer the patients to local doctors, after diagnosis, explaining the treatment the patient needs to the doctor.

Each Case Separate
The charge depends on the case. "Each case, each patient is a separate identity," Harmon said. "In a minor case there would be no charge. For a severe case, there would be a small charge."

Cases in all degrees of severity come to the center's regular Friday session, between 2:30 and 4 p. m. Some of the patients are able to walk into the hospital, others must be carried on stretchers. How many times each patient returns to the center depends on the case.

Levittown Fire Co. Gets Building Site In Falls Township

LEVITTOWN, Sept. 26 — Levitt and Sons, Inc. have offered Levittown Volunteer Fire Co. 1, Falls Township, a site for a new fire house.

The offer was made at a meeting between two members of the fire company and William J. Levitt and Bud Meyers, Levitt public relations representative. Benjamin S. Hamilton, 11 Walnut Lane, treasurer of the fire company, and Fire Chief Robert W. Quinlan, 10 Walnut lane, represented the fire company.

Talks Were Preliminary
Hamilton described the meeting as "more or less a preliminary discussion. There are quite a few things that have to be worked out," he said. "We will discuss it at a meeting of the fire company, then we will meet with Mr. Levitt's architects."

The site offered for the fire house will be in Falls Township, in either the Willow Wood or the Elderberry Pond section of Levittown.

Encouraged By Result
The company, which was formed over a year ago, has been using the facilities of the Falls Township fire company.

Hamilton expressed encouragement as the result of the meeting. "Mr. Levitt was very co-operative and assured us every assistance," he said.

Committees Named For Borough Group

Stanley Reichley, president of Perkasio, has appointed three committees and committee chairmen for the Bucks County Borough's Association. The chairmen are Ralph Yanish, Quakertown, legislative; George Bilger, Halmerville, attendance; and Edward R. Roberts, Jr., Morrisville, program.

Fred B. Bebbington, Yardley; C. Thawley Hayman, Doylestown; John R. May, Langhorne, and Francis J. Byers, Bristol, were named to the legislative committee.

On the attendance committee are LeRoy Mumbaner, Trumbauersville, and Oswin Keller, Dublin. Members of the program committee are Lloyd Weisel, Perkasio, and George Barber, New Britain.

Extend Levittown Hospital Campaign

Jack Scanlin, chairman of the Lower Bucks County Hospital Completion Fund, announced today the drive throughout Levittown has been extended till Wednesday. Canvassing of homes began Sept. 15.

Scanlin said the desire of residents for information about the hospital and the fund consumed unexpected time. He said not quite 50 per cent of the homes had been contacted.

Flower Show Entry

Accord Reached In Labor Tiff At Tool Firm

PENNDDEL, Sept. 26—The Spolar Bros. Tool Corp. management and workers agreed to an election for union representation yesterday in a meeting with a National Labor Relations Board official, Joseph Spolar, a partner in the firm said today.

"The men all agreed they should come back to work," Spolar said. "Some of them have come in this morning. The rest will be in Monday."

Plant Picketed

The plant was picketed this week when nine employees said they were laid off for lack of seniority, and demanded union representation.

Management and representatives of the workers met with Allan Zurlnick, of the Philadelphia NLRB, after Spolar said he was "one hundred per cent in accord with union organization of the plant if that is what the men want."

3-Hour Confab

In a three-hour conference, both sides agreed to an election Oct. 26, for the workers to select a union. Eligible for the ballot are Local 123, of a CIO affiliate, the Pennell Independents, and the choice of having no union.

It was observed early in the week the pickets carried placards naming the United Electrical Radio Machine Workers of America, but on Thursday changed to Local 123 signs.

Company Pays Fine For Truck Autos

The Philadelphia News Company yesterday paid a fine to Justice of the Peace Rene J. Tritschner on charges of operating an improperly registered vehicle.

The firm was fined $25 for permitting the violation and Frank Mita, 935 Sigel street, Philadelphia, driver of the vehicle, was fined $10.

According to State Trooper John McDonough, who filed the complaint, Mita was operating an automobile which had been changed into so that it was being used as a truck, but without the required truck license plates. Mita was arrested by McDonough on Route 13, about two weeks ago.

Borough Official Feels Rate Is Much Too Low

LEVITTOWN, Sept. 26 — The Bucks County Tax Board's increase in the Levittown Shopping Center assessment from $345,390 to $515,970 was criticized by Levitt and Sons and the Tullytown Council finance committee, as respectively, too high and too low.

The new tax figure was announced in a letter from Chief Assessor Elwood Britton received by an official of another local body appealing the $345,390 assessment. School Board Secretary William B. Parr declined to comment saying he had not discussed it with the other school directors.

The Bucks County Commissioners, sitting as the Board of Tax Assessment and Review, heard the appeal in Doylestown.

Hits Figure

Maintaining that the $515,970 figure is too high, a Levitt representative said the rate is "way out of line, compared with other shopping centers in the district."

"Equalization of taxation is one of the principles of assessing values," the Levitt spokesman said. "Our contention is that we're assessed at more than twice the assessments placed on the new Morrisville Shopping Center, and almost twice that placed on the buildings and acreage of the Fairless Hills Shopping Center. Therefore, we feel that we are being improperly assessed."

The Levitt spokesman said he was informed that the new tax valuations are $10 for each square foot of shopping center buildings and $5,590 per acre of other land in the center.

Improper Figure

"We, too, feel that $515,970 is not a proper figure," Arthur Leigh said for the finance committee. "It should be a lot more than that."

Leigh and the Levitt representative both said they did not know what steps their respective organizations might take to protest the County Tax Board's decision. Leigh said he will complain to Council at its next meeting.

In the letter received by Parr, Britton said the increase was made by the Tax Board. "After reviewing your appeal on valuation levied by your local assessor, who endeavored to value all properties at present market value as set up as the standard by the state equalization board."

Cornwells Man Finds He's Heir To Unknown Sum

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Sept. 26 — "I'm not a bit confused, but I don't have any idea what it is," William Durr, Walnut avenue, a little breathlessly told a Courier reporter yesterday.

Durr had just discovered that he is one of a group of persons entitled to a forgotten sum of money, according to the Tracers Company of America. The New York firm is making a search for persons entitled to a total of nearly $500,000 in accumulated dividend checks, cash surrender values and other interests from various corporations.

"The only thing I can think of," Durr said, "is that years ago I had some European stocks that went bankrupt. I don't remember any rich uncles or aunts."

Durr found about his windfall from a friend. "Someone came and told me my name was in the paper," he said. "I thought they were kidding me, but I looked and sure enough, there it was. The name was spelled the same as mine and the address was the same as my old one."

He intends to write to the Tracer company, at once, to find out just how much his unexpected fortune is. In the meantime, he has decided how he will spend the money. If it is any sum at all, "I intend to buy a place down at the shore," he said. "I'd have lots more plans, if I knew how much I am getting."

Time For Change Of Clock Hands

It's that time of year again, time to make the big decision. Do you turn the clock ahead or back, before you go to bed tonight?

Before you become totally confused in your attempts to figure it out, we'll tell you.

Turning the clock back one hour at midnight or just before you go to bed will make the switch from Daylight Saving Time to Eastern Standard Time. Then you can go to bed, anticipating an extra hour of sleep tomorrow morning.

Club is To Donate Party 'Fixings'

LANGHORNE, Sept. 26 -- Considerable business was transacted at the first board meeting of Langhorne Sorosis, held in Langhorne library last week.

Plans were made for donations to the Valley Forge Hospital birthday party Oct. 20. It was decided to send 20 cakes and at least 50 wrapped gifts, for distribution by the American Red Cross to hospitalized veterans.

Arrangements were made for a Fall flower show, Oct. 2nd and 3rd. Mrs. John Beiler, president, appointed as delegates to the Southeastern District Conference of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Walter Jackson, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Sven Nielson, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. W. H. Bathmann, publicity chairman.

Plans were made by the program committee to sponsor a fashion show at 8:30 p. m. Oct. 26, at the Community House, Langhorne, when a "talent" table also would be introduced.

For Men's Night, the group planned a talk on Chinese family life, with costumes and songs by Mrs. Madge Ashley. Mrs. R. Thomas, garden chairman, announced intentions to hold "Little Flower Shows" at each regular meeting, using seasonal material.

Posted for membership were Mrs. Earle Brunner and Mrs. A. J. Sherer, while Mrs. R. Hopt transferred from the Junior Sorosis.

An attendance contest was planned with captains to be Mrs. W. H. Bathmann, Miss C. Briggs, Mrs. J. Montgomery, Mrs. William Reeder, Mrs. H. P. Rothermel, and Mrs. H. Waldkoenig. Work of the Needlework Guild was stressed by Mrs. John Mladjen. Mrs. William Kaye was appointed as a director within the Sorosis to receive the customary two garments from donating members, to be collected for the In gathering in Doylestown Oct. 14.

Mrs. R. Dwinell recorded the minutes of the meeting, with Mrs. L. Carroll reading the treasurer's report. A dessert was served by the hostess prior to the business meeting.

The October meeting will include a talk on the proposed Department of Health for Bucks County. Board meetings of the club will be held on the day of the regular meeting at 10:30 a. m.

Club Departments Conduct Sessions

FAIRLESS HILLS, Sept. 26 -- Three departments of Fairless Hills Women's Club held recent sessions.

The conservation and gardening department held a meeting Sept. 17 at William Penn Center, Fallsington. Mrs. Phillip Eckelberry, chairman presided. Mrs. Walter Pitzonka, Bristol twp., gave a talk on the fundamentals of flower arrangements.

The legislation department held a meeting Sept. 22 at the home of Mrs. Lester Becker, Andover rd. Mrs. Becker conducted the meeting in the absence of Mrs. Arthur Brown, chairman. J. P. Doherty, secretary Pennsylvania joint school board, spoke of workings of the school board and a question period was held.

The literature department held a meeting Sept. 21 at the home of Mrs. Richard Moore, chairman. Trenton rd. Book reviews were given by Mrs. Howard Barnett, Mrs. Lester Becker and Mrs. Moore.

LAND BOUGHT

The historic Harry D. Ruos property at E. State and Church sts., Doylestown, has been purchased by the Christian Science Society of Doylestown, it was announced yesterday by J. Carroll Molloy, Doylestown realtor.

Weekly Payrolls Reach Average High of $77.99

The number of production workers in Pennsylvania factories remained unchanged from July to August. The number reported yesterday by the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia totaled 1,190,600.

Working time increased nearly one per cent and weekly payrolls rose two per cent. Average weekly earnings reached a new high of $77.99, reflecting further increases in hourly earnings to a peak of $1.80 and a slightly longer work week of nearly 40 hours.

Durable Goods Steady

Employment in the durable goods industry division was the same, although such groups as furniture, glass, electrical machinery, stone and clay showed small gains in productivity.

Offsetting decreases were reported in non-electrical machinery, transportation equipment and instruments. Non-durables, on the whole, increased employment one per cent, owing chiefly to seasonal expansion in apparel.

Compared with a year ago, employment and working time were five per cent higher. Payrolls were 14 per cent higher.

Weekly Pay Up $6

Large increases in heavy goods were due, in part, to the fact that in August of last year these industries were in the throes of reorganization after a serious steel strike.

Non-durables declined slightly in employment and working time, although total payrolls were four per cent above a year ago. Because of an increase of 15 cents in average hourly earnings, weekly earnings averaged $6 more than a year ago. The work-week was just about the same as 1952.

Pair Killed as Plane Crashes Into Tree; 3rd Man Injured

NEW BRITAIN TWP., Sept. 26 -- Two men were killed and a third was injured seriously yesterday in a crash of their small plane near Line Lexington. The plane crashed into a tree and burst into flames while attempting to take off from a strip on the farm of Harvey Moyer.

Harvey Weir, 25, of Almshouse road, near Richboro, pilot and owner of the craft, died of burns three hours after the crash.

Harry Martin, 21, of 1033 Arbutha road, Abington, a passenger, was trapped in the wreckage and burned to death.

Had Visited Fair

Robert Platt, Jr., 20, of County Line road and Bustleton Pike, was admitted to North Penn Hospital, Lansdale, with burns of the face and legs.

Moyer told police that the youths had just returned from the Allentown Fair and had started to fly back to the Weir farm, 12 miles away, when the crash occurred.

According to Moyer, the plane gathered speed and when it was about 20 feet in the air it side-slipped into a tree and burst into flames after it plunged into the underbrush.

Was Pilot 7 Years

Weir had been flying for seven years and was a licensed pilot. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Weir.

Platt is the son of Robert E. Platt, owner of the Somerset Springs swimming pool.

Martin was an employee of Minneapolis-Honeywell Company's Brown Instrument Division at Wayne Junction. His parents were visiting Easton at the time of the accident.

Layoffs at Kaiser Caused by Changes in Plane Plant

A spokesman for the Kaiser Metal Products Corporation said that a layoff of 250 students in the aircraft training school division was caused by a rearrangement in the schedule. Whether the layoff was temporary was not explained.

Another story frequently heard in the Bristol Borough has said the Manhattan Soap Plant would be taken over by the Kaiser firm.

The spokesman denied any such move by the corporation. He said such rumors have been heard for two years. Many other buildings in the borough were the object of discussion, "but now, as then," he said, "the story is completely unfounded."

Wallpaper, Flowers, Fabric, Pegboard, All Serve To Decorate Walls

Novel Wall Ideas Featured At Show

By OLGA CURTIS

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 (INS)—It's easy to dress up a blank wall space without buying a Rembrandt, as proved by some of the novel wall treatments at the current National Homefurnishings Show.

First, consider wallpaper—unusual wallpaper.

If you have a very small space to decorate, there's a new harlequin paper that comes in vivid diamond checks of color. It's spectacular in a small area, but don't try it on a big space unless you wear dark glasses.

For a big space, try the wallpaper that masquerades as a brick wall painted white. This paper is so real-looking it even has a raised, rough texture for the "plaster" between the bricks.

Another idea—for the person who wants the wall to work as storage space—is pegboard. Whole sheets of pegboard can be put on the wall and painted to match the rest of the room. The little holes in the pegboard provide texture and eye-interest; they also hold up hooks for hanging bookcases, flower pots, pictures, plate and other knick-knacks.

Flower pots, incidentally, make the cheapest of wall dressings. Get three matching holders, three matching pots, and hang them straight in a horizontal line—spaced according to the wall area.

Use Flowers

You can either have real flowers or ivy or imitation posies. One exhibitor at the show used three white pots brimming with artificial daisies to dress up a bedroom wall. You could do the same thing with geraniums for a dinette wall.

A wall treatment that takes work, but pays off in looks, literally consists of "dressing" a wall. Fabric—the sturdy type like chintz—can make a kitchen look as elegant in its own way as damask made castle walls look beautiful a century ago.

Use a definite pattern, like a stripe, or a check. Don't try to do the whole wall. The area above kitchen cabinets, or a dado around a dinette, will give you work enough. If the fabric is striped, use the stripe vertically to make the room seem higher or horizontally if you want to make a short space longer.

You can tack the fabric to the wall after pulling it tight or paste it on, but the best way is to make little runners of wood, attach these to the wall and then nail the fabric to the runners as if you were stretching a curtain.

Outdoor Locker

GARDEN STORAGE. All-purpose exterior fir plywood outdoor storage locker can be placed near children's play area for toys or used as garden center for tools and equipment.

PRODUCTION DOWN. PARIS, (INS)—Romanian exile sources in Paris cited a notable drop in Romania's oil production since last year resulting from lack of drilling equipment. Equipment previously imported from the West reportedly is wearing out and replacements cannot be found.

The power of the state is measured by the power that men surrender to it.—Felix Morley.

THE HANDY HOMERS

Advisory Housing Group To Meet

By WILLIAM KERWIN
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26—(INS)—President Eisenhower's advisory committee on housing meets next week amid signs that government and industry soon will make a concerted effort to stem the drop in home production.

Housing Chief Albert M. Cole planned to call the committee to Washington after bluntly warning private lenders to expect federal action to ease credit unless they show a greater interest in the problem.

Cole's statement to the American Bankers Association won the approval of the National Association of Home Builders which has blamed a four month drop in housing output on tight credit policies. The reaction of bankers was more subdued. Most claimed the supply of money is adequate to meet present demands. But there was evidence Cole hit a responsive note and the lenders will try to be more cooperative.

Problem Recognized

A housing expert said he thought there was "a real recognition of the problem" by the lending fraternity, he commented: "I would say over the long pull the housing situation will gradually improve but I can't say with certainty that it is indisputably happening now."

ABA members said they were concerned over Cole's threat of direct government action and indicated they will take a fresh look at their own operations in the housing field. Some said higher interest rates might help but NAHB officials said they are firmly opposed to such a move on the grounds that it would force builders to concentrate on higher priced homes.

There seemed to be some agreement that housing production will remain at low levels at least until early 1954. Even if there were favorable building weather, heavy business demands for credit would block any sizable increase in financing for housing.

Experts See

Most experts see in Cole's ABA speech an implied threat of pumping more millions of dollars into a program of direct government loans at the tremendous rates of the early Korean period, there has been a continuous shortage of financing throughout the country. Officials point out that a decision to revive Fanny Mae would certainly effect the Eisenhower administration's plan to balance the budget. ## BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Of old hast thou laid the foundations of the earth; and the heavens are the work of thy hands. — Ps. 104:2.

Geologists tell us the foundations of the earth were laid a very long time ago indeed. God never has faltered nor failed. He will not fail us, and he knows us very well indeed. It is our turn now to cultivate his acquaintance.

SPANISH REDOUBT

After a year and a half of tedious negotiations, signing of the U. S.-Spanish aid for bases deal will come as an anti-climax. World developments during that period, however, more than ever confirm the need for additional Allied landholds on the European land mass. The U. S. will construct naval bases and airfields in Spain.

Most significant of the changes, of course, is Russia's mastery of the H-bomb. This has not only made it imperative that the West shore up its strength more fully, but also that it augment its array of tactical springboards for retaliatory attack.

A military alliance with Spain is vital, and for other reasons than the real estate that accompanies the deal. One reason is that France is a weak reed.

Another is that the Hispanic peninsula commands the security of the western Mediterranean. Hence it is the key to the all-important Allied air bases and oil supply sources scattered through North Africa and the Middle East, not to mention U. S. lines of communication with Turkey, Greece and Egypt to the East.

Communist propagandists did their utmost to make Franco repugnant to Americans. In France ideological antipathy is combined with the fear that NATO might write off Europe and "retreat behind the Pyrenees." However, the West's new redoubt in Spain should inspire anything but retreat. It is another hard-headed geo-military move that should give hot-headed reds in the Kremlin pause.

Your Birthday by STELLA

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 26 — Born today, the star of genius is still hovering! You have a natural spiritual nature. Although you may not be completely conventional in your expression of the profoundly religious, you can become a great power for good, even though you do not enter the church as your life work. You have the gift of the written word and will have something important to say to the world.

There is a certain restlessness in your nature which will exert itself during the early part of your life. It is likely that it may take you a little longer than some others to find what you want to do as your life work. Music, literature and the arts all offer you a career. You may even need to do some experimenting before you make up your mind. You are not interested in business as a career and that can be dismissed almost at once as a possibility.

You can work very hard indeed when your interest is keen on a subject, but your energies are apt to be somewhat spasmodic. Just as one swallow doesn't make a summer, so one quick, early success may not mean a lifetime of fame. You must learn to maintain a consistent series of successes if you are to reach the heights to which you are entitled. It is likely that when fame does come it will long outlive you.

Your love nature is very strong and you have the capacity for an extremely contented and happy marriage.

To find what the stars have in store for tomorrow select your birthday star and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Sunday, September 27 — Attendance at the church of your choice will bring you a much-needed spiritualism at this time.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Avoid getting involved in late week end traffic, or the kind of your holiday rest is disrupted.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) — Your favorite hobby might be the answer to a feeling of dullness. If you haven't any, find one!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20) — Extend your trip, if the weather is fine. You have another free day to devote to healthful relaxation.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) — The autumn weather can be especially pleasant if you enjoy hiking and camping. Try it!

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20) — Invite friends you may not have seen for some little time to your home for dinner and the evening.

ARIES (Mar. 21-Apr. 20) — Remember that spiritual, as well as physical, relaxation is needed if you are to keep up to par.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21) — Don't make week end plans so rugged that you have no time for some real beauty rest. Get plenty of sleep.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21) — This should be a happy family day. See that your loved ones have an enjoyable time. Plan everything for them.

CANCER (June 22-July 23) — After morning church, you can devote the balance of the day to some recreation appropriate to the day.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) — If motoring, don't get caught in heavy traffic. You business, you have a good head for financial matters and know how to make money you have got a long way. In fact, you are just a little more penurious than is necessary, for your talents are bound to earn you a comfortable living at all times, and your natural gift for saying will take care, very amply, of any proverbial "rainy day."

Your love nature is strong. Wed early for happiness.

To find what the stars have in store for tomorrow, select your birthday star and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Monday, September 28

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23) — If added responsibilities are placed on your shoulders, accept them as graciously as you can.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — There is no quick road to wealth. Be careful in all business arrangements. Postpone decisions if you can.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) — There is plenty to do this coming week. Your energies should be up, to the challenge.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20) — If there is opposition to your newest idea today, put it aside and wait for a better time.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) — There is much activity in your orbit just now. Be careful that you accept the right opportunity.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20) — You will need to stick closely to routine today if you are to finish up their work you have scheduled.

ARIES (Mar. 21-Apr. 20) — Tackle the hard jobs first, and then the rest will seem as easy as apple pie! Follow a definite plan.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21) — There's a busy week ahead for you. Your week end should have given you ample energy to cope with it.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21) — If asked to help a close friend in getting a job, do so. Perhaps you can supply a good reference.

CANCER (June 22-July 23) — You could get right smack in the middle of an argument, if you don't watch out! At all costs, avoid it.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) — Be careful if you are attempting to mix business and emotions. Utilize friendship wisely. Don't impose upon it.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23) — Your rest should have done you a world of good. Start the week at the office full of vim and vigor.

Urges Master Plan In Delaware Valley

RIVERTON, N. J., Sept. 26 — Regional master plan for orderly economic development of the entire 11-county Greater Philadelphia region was advocated by a spokesman of the Greater Philadelphia-Delaware-South Jersey Council as the most logical way to avoid the haste and waste of haphazard growth in the nation's most rapidly expanding industrial area.

Theodore G. Heck, field representative of the tri-state planning agency, told a dinner meeting of the Riverton-Palmira Rotary club:

"Such a master blueprint would be used as a guide for the 387 varied types of communities of the district in laying down their plans for major improvements. Each of the communities would be encouraged to accept its part of the master plan as a foundation or framework for its own local plan."

Heck said that universal adoption of the master plan by individual authorities would bring about a united regional system of highways, and better coordination of park, rail, water, and air transportation, water supply, sewage systems, and other interrelated municipal activities.

Breakfast, Reception are to Follow Carber-Crout Wedding

NEWTOWN, Sept. 26 — St. Andrew's R. C. Church provided the setting for the marriage of Miss Patricia J. Crout, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle E. Crout, Langhorne, to Mr. Harry Edward Carber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Carber, Langhorne R. D., this morning at 10.

The Rev. Daniel J. Daly officiated at the double ring ceremony, with Dr. Raymond V. Hennessy singing "O God of Love" and "The Sacred Heart." "Jesus, My Lord, My God, My All" and "Wedding Prayer." He was accompanied by Mrs. Alois Metz.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of nylon tulle and Chantilly lace over satin. Her satin tulle veil was trimmed with lace and seed pearls, and held her fingertip veil of French illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses centered with a purple-lipped orchid corsage.

Miss Margaret Carber, Langhorne, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a shrimp colored nylon tulle and satin gown, halo of flowers with a nose veil of shrimp color, and carried a colonial bouquet of blue pom-poms. Miss Sally Crouse, Highland Park, N. J., cousin of the bride, Miss Beatrice Felton, Pennell, and Miss Nancy Kaufman, Langhorne, were bridesmaids. They wore slate blue gowns, with halos of flowers and nose veils matching their gowns. They carried shrimp color pom-poms.

Brenda Forbes, Chambersburg, flower girl, wore a floor-length gown of shrimp tulle, a halo of flowers, and carried a colonial bouquet of shrimp and blue pom-poms. Mr. Robert James, Langhorne Manor, was best man, and ushers were Messrs. Roger Adams, Newtown, John Diorio, Pennell, and Kenneth Kaufman, Langhorne.

Mrs. Crout, mother of the bride chose a pink color nylon crepe dress, brown accessories, and corsage of yellow roses. The bridegroom's mother, wore rose crepe with brown accessories and corsage of white roses.

A breakfast followed the marriage ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, with reception arranged at 2:30 in Mafekfield Community House, Woodside.

Upon their return from a trip through southern states, the couple will be at home after October 2d at Langhorne R. D.

The bride and bridegroom are graduates of Neshaminy high school, Langhorne. The bridegroom is engaged in farming with his father in Langhorne.

SALVATION FROM SIN
"The soul that sinneth, it shall die." Eccl. 10:12.
Sin is not a theological abstraction.

It is the evil of the world brought home.

It is the lowered moral standard that threatens youth.

It is the greed for power and money that fills the economic world with rackets — Sin is as real as cancer; the corrupting influence which poisons the soul.

I ask what is sin causing you to do?

It made Adam and Eve pluck the forbidden fruit.

It caused Achan to steal the Babylonish garment and golden wedge.

It caused Ahab to lie to get Naboth's vineyard.

It made Baalam step over a heavenly crown for a little of Balak's money and back into hell.

It caused Judas to sell his Christ for less than $18.00.

It made the rich Jewish farmer tare down his barns and build granaries and sent his soul to hell.

What is sin causing you to do? "For the wages of sin is death. But the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." God's great love and our great need of salvation is the twofold purpose for this gift of gifts. Salvation!

Marriage Vows Are Taken in Church

CROYDON, Sept. 26 — At a ten o'clock nuptial mass today, Miss Mildred Virginia Adams, Hulmeville, became the bride of Mr. Edward G. Benneman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Benneman, Walnut avenue. The double ring ceremony took place in St. Thomas Aquinas R. C. Church with the Rev. Joseph Rodgers officiating.

Mrs. Joseph Ehrenreich, Croydon, presided at the console, and Mr. William Larkin, Winder Village, the soloist, rendered the hymns, "Ave Maria," "On this Day O Beautiful Mother" and "Mother at your feet is kneeling."

The bride given in marriage by her brother, Mr. William P. Adams, Hulmeville, wore a gown of white satin, nylon tulle and lace. The bodice featured an off-shoulder effect of illusion, outlined in lace, and was of nylon tulle over the satin, long tight-fitting sleeves but-toned at the wrist. The full skirt of tulle over satin had two full length inserts of lace. The rhinestone and seed pearls crown held a finger tip veil. White and gold braided slippers completed her attire. She carried a white prayer book on which rested white carnations.

The trio of attendants wore floor length gowns of white net over satin. With strapless bodices long tulle sleeves were worn. The three tiered skirts were of net over satin. Wreaths of red roses were worn. Slippers were white. The three carried cascades of red roses. Miss Helen Boehmke, Phila. was the maid of honor, and Miss Martha Adams, sister of the bride, and Miss Beatrice Blean, both of Hulmeville, were bridesmaids.

Mr. Benneman was attended by his brother, Mr. Raymond Benneman, as best man, and Mr. Harry Kelly, and Mr. Joseph Dillon, as ushers. They wore white coats, black trousers and bow ties.

The bride's gifts to her attendants were gold crosses to the bridesmaids, and a silver St. Anne's medal to the maid of honor. Mr. Benneman presented his attendants with gold cuff links and tie clasps.

For her honeymoon trip to New York, N. Y., the bride will wear a black crepe dress with striped bolero jacket with black accessories, and a white carnation corsage. Upon their return the newlyweds will reside temporarily at the home of the bride-groom's parents.

A reception will be held in Odd Fellows Hall, Bristol, 100 guests attending.

The bride is a graduate of Neshaminy high school, Langhorne, and is employed in the Insulation Dept. of Hunter Mfg. Co. The bridegroom, who served with the Merchant Marine for a number of years, is now employed by Kaiser Metal Products Co.

Mrs. Benneman chose a gown of iridescent blue tulle, light blue

Teen Canteen To Start Fifth Season Oct. 3

MORRISVILLE, Sept. 26 — The Teen Age Canteen, under the sponsorship of the Morrisville Rotary Club, for the fifth year, will open on Saturday, Oct. 3 in the Morrisville High School gymnasium.

A series of new rules will go into effect this season, according to Coleman P. Morgan, chairman of the club committee.

Memberships

All old memberships have been cancelled and young people between the ages of 13 and 19 will be permitted to attend. Applications, which cost 25 cents each, are available from a committee which is now being set up, or from the high school, Morgan said.

Cards will not be issued until they are approved and membership is limited to the area covered by the Rotary Club. Those outside the club's area will not be permitted to attend, unless they are escorted by a canteen member. They will be charged 50 cents admission.

Cards Needed

Morgan pointed out that membership cards will be needed for admission and 25 cents will be charged for reissuing a card, when one is lost. Members will be charged 20 cents per night for attendance at the canteen.

Members of the Rotary Club and their wives, will serve as host. Mr. and Mrs. William Hahn and Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Van Orden will serve on opening night.

Valley Churchmen Pick Rev. Shirer For Council Post

NEW HOPE, Sept. 26 — The Rev. Robert Shirer, pastor of Stockton Presbyterian Church, has been elected commissioner of education of the Delaware Valley Council of Churches, by the organization's board of directors.

The Rev. Shirer will replace the Rev. Carl Halvorsen, formerly of the Lambertville, Centenary Methodist Church. The Rev. John Y. Elliott, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Lambertville, was named to replace Rev. Halvorsen as the council's representative to the Lambertville Betterment Committee.

Mrs. Walter Yates, Lahaska, and Newell Worthington, New Hope, were elected delegates-at-large to the board of directors.

The Rev. Thomas Everest, Yardley, pastor of Lahaska Methodist Church, was named to represent the council at meetings of the Lower Bucks County Council. Charles Hand, Lambertville, will attend the meetings of the Hunterdon County Council of Churches as the Delaware Valley Council of Churches representative.

The council will meet on Monday, Oct. 5, according to the Rev. Vernon M. Murray, New Hope, president of the group. Rev. Murray said the general pulp exchange list will be announced then.

Africa New Mode In Home Styling

NEW YORK, (INS) — It's now arty to be African in modern decoration.

African art objects from places like Kenya, Tanganyika, the Congo, are being used to add a unique note to contemporary room settings at the national home furnishings show.

The combination may sound incongruous, but the effect is eye-catching. African art seems to blend with modern furniture as well as colonial primitives blend into early American.

THE OPENING of the new $2,000,000 Neshaminy High School on Old Lincoln Highway and super highway adds a new twist to education in the Langhorne area as Helen Campbell, 521 Harding avenue, Feasterville, (center) exposes Steer Miller (right), a Philadelphia painter, to a little education. Monty Ahlum, 305 Hulmeville ave., Langhorne, (left) eyes the proceedings. The reason for the fraternization, if you will, between students and painter is that the school is still in the last stages of construction. As students pore over their books, painters and carpenters swarm in and around the building to complete work.

State Studies New Practice Of Putting Fish To Sleep

PITTSBURGH, (INS) — Most of us are busy tearing through the pages of a hunting manual, but if you'll pry your eyes away for a few minutes, there is still news floating about concerning fish, that deserves attention.

It seems that a few states are suddenly becoming interested in what would appear at first glance to be the excellent practice of putting frisky trout to sleep before transporting them to streams where next spring they will battle angler's hooks.

Idea Catches

And surprisingly enough, the Pennsylvania Fish Commission issued this writer that it would bring the issue up when eight fish commissioners meet in Harrisburg the end of this month.

It seems all this started when a note not more than a couple paragraphs long was received in the mail by Pittsburgh's representative on the fish commission, Bernard Horne, and this writer, and both took more than just a little interest.

Not long ago, California fisheries research men discovered that by using a drug mixed into a tank of water, they were able to reduce the activities of stream-bound trout.

Big Sleeping Pill

This drug is sodium amytol, sort of a big sleeping pill, that when mixed with water, puts fish temporarily into a less active state.

In this inactive condition, it was found the fish require less oxygen and room in transportation tanks. The drug would not harm trout, but instead quieted them down so much that Brook, Brown and Rainbow trout could be moved from hatcheries to streams in some cases in almost double the amount.

Another state that soon picked up the method was Michigan, where other excellent advancements have been made in fish research by that state's conservation agency.

Now Pennsylvania Fish Commission Horne has become interested in the use of sodium amytol. Horne told International News Service:

To Investigate

"I've instructed our fisheries research department to investigate the claims made by California and Michigan fish research men. If these claims are true, then I'll see if this state wouldn't be helped by using it."

Horne promised he will bring up the issue when the Commission meets.

Horne won't make any definite commitments until he has the results of Pennsylvania fish research men. But there undoubtedly could be many improvements made if the sodium amytol sleeping pill is as effective as California and Michigan say it is. These two states have made excellent progress in the past that other states have picked up.

Actually there are two big advantages to consider. First is the reduced cost in transportation of fish, and secondly, with the smaller cost, better hatchery production could result if added space and funds were available.

Then too, streams would be stocked earlier and in larger quantities if one truck load of fish carried twice the amount it does at present.

According to California research, the drug wears off quickly, and eliminates what sportsmen might object to as an easy way to catch fish if they were otherwise sluggish.

In fact, the Golden State research men believe the limited activity of trout eliminates much of the sluggishness generally noted when trout are dumped into streams after a long haul.

Drive To Accent Safer Motoring

A courteous driving campaign will be launched this week in the Levittown-Fairless Hills area.

It is sponsored by the Civic Association of the two communities with the cooperation of The Automobile Club of Philadelphia-AAA.

One thousand bumper strips bearing the message "Drive with Courtesy—Avoid Accidents" will be distributed by the civic groups to their members for use on car bumpers.

The bumper strips will be presented to officials of the two bodies at 9:30 a.m. Monday, by Robert N. Hoffman, Safety Director of the AAA Club. They will be received by Edward Hough, president of the Levittown Civic Association, and Bernie Korsan, its safety chairman, and by Elber Hocker, vice president of the Fairless Hills Civic Association. Mrs. Margaret Johnson, manager of the AAA office on Bristol pike in Edgely, a resident of Fairless Hills, will also be present.

The facilities of the AAA have been placed at the disposal of the two civic groups to assist them in traffic safety activities.

NAMED TO COMMISSION

NEWTOWN TWP., Sept. 26 — A former owner of the Lavender Hall Estate, on the Washington Crossing Road, Major General Edward C. Rose, has been appointed by Governor Driscoll, of New Jersey, as that state's representative on the two-man commission recently set up to have charge of the New York Harbor waterfront.

3-Co. Clinic Area Branch Office Is Discussed

A formal request to establish in Lower Bucks County a branch of the Tri-County Mental Health Clinic was discussed at a meeting in Bristol High School Thursday evening. The meeting was called at the suggestion of Warren P. Snyder, superintendent of schools for Bristol Borough.

Dr. Miles Garber, Jr., director of the Tri-County Clinic, reviewed the work of a Mental Health Clinic and outlined steps to be taken to establish a Lower Bucks County branch of the now existing Tri-County Health Clinic operating two days a week in Doylestown. This clinic serves all Bucks County. But the sponsoring committee went on record as supporting the development of a local clinic because of the tremendous growth in the lower county plus the difficulties in reaching Doylestown because of distance and transportation.

Office Facilities

The Bristol Schools offered office facilities in the former Wistar Institute, Emille, for temporary quarters. A second meeting will be held Oct. 5, to make future plans.

Those in attendance were: Warren P. Snyder, Dr. Miles Garber, Dr. Ruth Fedder, county psychologist, M. R. Reiter, superintendent of schools, Morrisville; Robert Schaeffer, supt. of schools, Bensalem Township; James Darbie, director of secondary education, Neshaminy high school, Miss Dorothy Gish, Morrisville high school, Miss Mary Dwyer, Pennsbury high school, John Koleser, Bensalem high school, Miss Georgiana Staehle, Neshaminy high school, Miss Edna Pennypacker, Bristol Township schools, John C. Burris, Bristol high school, guidance director, Miss Tompkins Baxter, Miss Helen Giles, Neshaminy high school, Miss Dorothy McCollon, Bristol Township, Elementary supervisor, Mrs. Adolph Ancker, budget committee of United Service Federation of Bucks County, Miss Harriet Mibbs and Mrs. Minnie Hittov, of Bucks County Mental Health Society.

Storage Unit Rises For Rohm & Haas

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26 — A new warehouse that will double storage capacity for ammonium sulfate at the Rohm & Haas Co. plant in Bristol, is under construction by the Luria Engineering Co., of Bethlehem.

Rohm & Haas products chemicals, resins and plastics for various industries, including leather, paper, petroleum, rubber, textiles, sanitation, coatings, plywood and agriculture.

The 14,000-square-foot warehouse, due to be completed early in October, will be used to store ammonium sulfate in bulk.

Fashions From Madrid Rival Paris and Rome

NEW YORK, (INS) — Spanish fashion designers proved today that anything Paris can do, they can do brighter — and cheaper, Signora America, much cheaper.

The demonstration took place at a staid time (noon to you, Yankee) when Franklin Simon, a Fifth Avenue store, presented a style show featuring the finest Madrid and Barcelona designers' creations and announced that they will be on sale beginning Oct. 5 in New York.

The store, first in the U. S. to promote the up-and-coming Spanish couture on a large scale, imported the ambassador from Spain, Don Jose Felix De Lequerica, for the occasion.

Beauty's Summit

De Lequerica pointed out gallantly that the beauty of women in the U. S. today is "one of the summits in the history of beauty."

"The Spanish imports of fashion," he said, "may be proud and full of dread at the same time of the function of complementing American women."

The clothes, which will be copied identically and sold at between $49.95 and $135, considerably below the prices of Paris and Italian fashion copies, were colorful.

They were colorful not only in the rainbow spirit, but also in what the style set refer to, illusively, as "flavor."

Some looked almost like costumes — extremely full-skirted, with fringe and braid running around the hemlines and circling like soft hoops up toward the waist.

Their blouses or bodices were sometimes shirtwaist - style and ruffled down the front in the picturesque toreador fashion — and other times off - shoulder and peasant-y, with wide, gathered collars reaching from the neck almost to the waist.

Schools in State Have Yet to Feel War Baby Impact

HARRISBURG, (INS) — The state Public Instruction Department has predicted that the full impact of "war babies" on the Commonwealth's educational system will be felt about 1960.

By that year, reports Dr. Carl D. Mornewick, chief of child accounting, total enrollment in the state's public schools will climb beyond the two million mark.

He estimates elementary enrollment will increase approximately 138,000 and the number of high school students will be up by 157,000.

If the Commonwealth's subsidy law remains unchanged, the increased student enrollment is interpreted by some department officials to mean an increase in the cost of education.

Not Enough

One official bluntly stated: "It's going to take more than the one per cent sales tax to pay the bill."

Pennsylvania — like most other states in the nation — was faced in the post-war years with the necessity to build or expand school buildings to house the larger number of students.

The Commonwealth was also forced to establish new salary minimums and grant more liberal retirement benefits to attract additional teachers into the profession as well as to satisfy cost of living requirements for veteran instructors.

Record Budget

The influx of war babies into the state's schools, the department pointed out, is reflected in the all-time record budget of $496,330,072 for the 1953-55 biennium which is nearly 324 million dollars higher than for 1945-47 — the early post war era.

In the current fiscal period, the Commonwealth will return $348,000,000 to local school districts for support of public schools, or about three times the estimated revenue of the one per cent sales tax earmarked for education.

Support of public schools is the largest single item in the present budget and has increased from $125,000,000 for the same purpose in 1945-47.

Other subsidies for pupil transportation, salaries and expenses of county superintendents and their assistants plus cost of vocation education total another 30 million dollars.

Formula Set

Current reimbursements to public school districts are based on legislation passed by the 1951 legislature which set up a formula for payment of subsidies on the districts' assessed valuation.

The legislation initiated a scale boosting maximum subsidies $200 a school year until a ceiling of $5,500 is reached for each teaching unit. The maximum subsidy for the 1953-54 school year is $5,500.
